Notes for Richard Clarence Guest:

Drafted into WW1 service - papers signed May 1, 1918

Obit: 897 . . . icMrd ;. um . . . 196x

Richard C. Guest, who had been President of the Society in 1953-54, died suddenly in Worcester, Massachusetts, on September 1, 1962, following a heart attack suffered while playing golf.

Mr. Guest had retired from active service as Vice-President of the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company in the spring of 1962 after a brilliant career marked by substantial contributions to actuarial thought and to the institution of life insurance.

He was born in London, Ontario, on April 9, 1897, attended the London Collegiate Institute and graduated from the University of Toronto in 1920, receiving the B.A. degree.

He joined the State Mutual Life Assurance Company of Worcester in 1920 and after successive promotions was named Actuary of that company in 1938 and Vice-President and Actuary in 1942. He was elected a director of the State Mutual in 1946.

In 1950, Mr. Guest joined the Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Company in Springfield, Massachusetts, as Vice-President and was elected a director of that company in the following year. He continued his interest in the affairs of the Massachusetts Mutual as a director up to the time of his death.

Mr. Guest was a Fellow by examination of both predecessors of the current Society and was a member of the Actuarial Society's Council at the organization of the Society of Actuaries in 1949. He became a member of the Board of Governors of the new Society, became Vice-President in 1951 and President in 1953. He was a member of the Permanent Committee for International Congresses of Actuaries and served on the Council of that body. He represented the Society officially at the XIVth International Congress held in Madrid in 1954.

He had presented papers to the American Institute and to the Actuarial Society and contributed to insurance publications. In the middle 1940's, he wrote jointly with E. M. McConney two historic papers published in the Transactions of this Society which have become landmarks in the subject of the compensation of life insurance agents.

During its formative period, Mr. Guest served as chairman of the Committee for the Preparation of Monetary Tables derived from the 1958 CSO Table and from the 1958 CET Table. He was the first chairman of the old Society's Press Committee.

Mr. Guest's interests in the life insurance industry were widespread. He was active in the Life Insurance Sales Research Bureau and was a pioneer in advocating the career contract for agents embodying service fees and retirement benefits. He was instrumental in the adoption by the Massachusetts Mutual of an advanced type of new agent financing plan under which the agent on completion of the financing period was free of the debt burden characteristic of conventional plans.

As one of the leading industry spokesmen, Mr. Guest participated in the intensive work which preceded the 1954 revision of that section of the New York Insurance Law concerned with expense limitation. He served on a number of committees of the American Life Convention and on joint committees of the American Life Convention and the Life Insurance Association of America. He was a member of the group of five men from the insurance industry appointed in 1955 by the then Secretary of the Treasury, George Humphrey, to collaborate with the Treasury and congressional staffs in studying the federal income taxation of life insurance companies. These negotiations resulted in the present tax applicable to life insurance companies.

Mr. Guest's memberships included the Senior Actuaries' Club, the Hartford and Boston Actuaries' Clubs, the Longmeadow Country Club, the Colony Club (Springfield), the Tatnuck Country Club (Worcester and Quinsigamond Lodge A.F. & A.M.). He was a member of Christ Church Cathedral of the Diocese of Western Massachusetts and served on the Chapter's Executive, Finance, and Building Committees.

Richard Guest was a person of great ability who enriched every area he worked in. A whole generation of actuaries will long remember him and miss his cordiality, his valued friendship, his helpfulness, and his kindness toward all those with whom he came in contact.

Mr. Guest was married in 1922 to Mary Ann Hobbs, who survives him. She also leaves two daughters, Mrs. Carl A. Lindstrom (Dorcas H. Guest, M.D.), of Arlington, Massachusetts, and Miss Ann T. Guest, of Cambridge, Massachusetts; a sister, Mrs. John Grieves of London, Ontario; and two grandsons.

Basil William George Grover ...

www.canadiansoldiers.com, 29 Oct 2004

Basil William George Grover went overseas with 1st Canadian Divisional Signals in December 1939; after a period as a company officer he was appointed adjutant, and in January 1941 became Assistant Chief Signals Officer for I Canadian Corps. In April 1942 he was appointed C.1 Signals, First Canadian Army. The citation for his OBE, awarded in June 1943, reads: Lieutenant Colonel Grover possesses outstanding organizing and directive ability. Perhaps more than any other officer in Royal Canadian Signals he has been responsible for the successful expansion of Canadian signals from the small organization of a divisional signals to the present communication service of the army. He has given long hours of tedious and arduous work without showing the least sign of fatigue or loss of keenness. All commanding officers and all staff officers with whom he works express their confidence in him and value his advice. It is true to say that he has made an outstanding contribution to the work of his Corps and the Canadian Army as a whole. After being made Officer of the Order of the British Empire, he was appointed Commander of 1 Canadian Infantry Division Signals, where he remained for the rest of the war. He received a Mentioned in Despatches in October 1945

Notes for Robert Lyle Guest:

BELLINGHAM, Wash. -A young Canadian who died after a 20-day fast -in the' Whatcom County jail "presumably starved !to death," according, to the county coroner. A Robert Lyle Guest, 22, London, Ont, died Friday in a local hospital. A federal 'attorney said "it was not possible to have suspended Guest's sentence. Coroner Robert L. Rood said Saturday a preliminary autopsy report indicated there could "be no other" cause of death but starvation. "There's no question to be solved. He starved to death," Rood said ruling out an inquest. Guest was arrested June 12 for illegal entry and ordered to serve 30 days before deportation. Undersheriff Lu Bisailon said he learned Tuesday Guest was fasting for universal citizenship. He said he reported Guest's condition to Assistant U.S. Atty. Richard Schaaf in Seattle Thursday. Bisailon said Schaaf told him the U.S. marshal's office opposed hospitalizing Guest "because it would require a special guard. Bisailon said Schaaf also told him the U.S. attorney's office did not want to suspend Guests's sentence for fear he would try to enter the country illegally again. Schaaf said, yesterday his office has no authority to modify a sentence. He said 'federal rules' allow prisoners to be transferred to a federal prison if there is reason to believe there is some need to review their sentence in light of their physical or mental condition.
